“For doctors who see the suffering and pain not only in the eyes of the patient but also amongst the family members there cannot be an act as pure and good as organ donation. The act of organ donation and the transformation it brings about in the life of the recipient has to be seen to be believed. From a unhappy miserable existence patients who receive an organ undergo a beautiful transformation to a disease free healthy life. It is almost like magic for these lucky patients. I, through this message, appeal to all the individuals to join hand in this noble act and
